Address
SAMUEL DIBBLE,
Editor "Orangeburg News,"
Orangeburg, S. C.

"We respectfully request our friends to send in their Advertisements as early in the week as convenient; and if possible, let us have them by Thursday evening. By this means, we will be able to issue at an earlier hour on Saturday, and will be enabled to give more of the latest news, up to the time of our going to press."

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL ITEMS.
SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 17, 1867.

A New Story.
We will publish next week, an ORIGINAL NOUVELETTE, entitled Watching and Waiting.

It is an exceedingly interesting and thrilling story, the production of a gifted pen, which we trust will be often employed for the instruction and entertainment of our readers.

We prepare them in advance for a pleasure, which we know they will enjoy as we have done, in the perusal of this choice contribution to our District literature.

Registration in this District.
Owing to some changes made in the organization of the Boards, there has been a delay in commencing Registration in two Precincts. The returns, as far as we have heard from the different Boards, are as follows:

| FIRST PRECINCT. | White. | Colored. | Total. |
|------------------|-------------|----------|--------|
| | Branchville | 83 | 172 |
| SECOND PRECINCT. | | | |
| Lewisville | 41 | 511 | 552 |
| THIRD PRECINCT. | | | |
| Eastorlins Mill | 17. | 61 | 78 |

The Crops.
We have had rather too much rain for Cotton during the past week. It is expected however, that the crop will exceed that of last year considerably.

In response to the Darlington correspondent of the Charleston Mercury, we would mention that Mr. Isaac Jennings, in the Fork of Edisto, has counted over two hundred forms on one stalk of Cotton, and has numerous stalks averaging over one hundred each. To Mr. JENNINGS and Mr. GEORGE S. SHIRER belong the credit of bringing the first open bolls of cotton to this place this year.

The Corn Crop is about made, and accounts are as favorable as we have predicted.

Town Improvements.
We are going to have a Town Market, located at the corner of St. John and Middleton Streets. The building is now in process of erection.

The Board of Commissioners of Public Buildings, we have heard, are about to erect on the Court House lot, a brick building for the District officers.

Mr. ROBERT JENNEY has contributed to the artistic embellishment of our Town, a fine statuette in wood, which we know will delight the eyes of all equestrian connoisseurs with its model proportions.

Iron Cotton Ties.
The planters of the State are becoming generally interested in this subject; and we would state that we have on exhibition at our office a specimen of the "Arrow Tie," and invite any who desire to inspect it, to give us a call. Messrs. J. H. Rodgers & Co. have made arrangements to supply this tie, in cases where it is desired by planters. See Advertisement.

The Charleston Hotel.
We took up our abode at this well-known and popular Hotel, upon our recent trip to the city. We found it fully equal to its past reputation, that is so well known to our readers, that it is unnecessary to enlarge upon it. In being located in the very centre of business, it has the advantage of any other house in the city in situation; while the superior excellence of its table, the prompt attention of its domestics, and the elegance and comfort of its accommodations will always insure for it the extensive patronage of the public, which it so well merits.

The name of Mixer, so long known to the travelling public in connection with the Hotel, is still represented by our friend GEORGE G. MIXER, Esq., upon whom has devolved the proprietorship, since the recent decease of Mr. William White, his late copartner. We commend our readers who visit the city to his courteous hospitality.

Sentence Day.
Saturday last was the day appointed for passing sentence upon the unhappy victims of their own evil deeds, who were tried and found guilty at the District Court. As a matter of some interest, we publish the penalties imposed by our discriminating and dignified District Judge.

State vs. Eli Snell, Bob Carn, Henry Miller, and David Miller—Larceny. To be imprisoned in State Penitentiary at hard labor for one year.

State vs. Albert Shuler—Larceny. To be imprisoned in the Jail of the District for two weeks and pay a fine of $10.

State vs. Simon Sandal—Larceny. To be imprisoned in the District Jail for one week.

State vs. Nelson—Burglary. To be imprisoned in the State Penitentiary for four years at hard labor.

State vs. Bill Wetsell—Grand Larceny. To be imprisoned in State Penitentiary at hard labor for three years.

State vs. Shadrack Counsel—Larceny. To be imprisoned in State Penitentiary at hard labor for three months.

State vs. Samuel Vice—Larceny. To be imprisoned in State Penitentiary for one month.

State vs. Nelson—Larceny. To be imprisoned in the District Jail for two weeks and pay a fine of $5.

State vs. Aiken—Trespass. To be imprisoned in the District Jail for one month.

State vs. Westbury—Trespass. To be imprisoned in the District Jail for one month.

State vs. William Sandford—Assault and Battery. To pay a fine of $10.

State vs. Pharaoh Robinson—Assault and Battery. To pay a fine of $5.

State vs. Emanuel Ezekiel—Assault and Battery. To pay a fine of $25.

State vs. Washington—Larceny. To be imprisoned in the District Jail for one week.

On Sunday, our worthy Sheriff and his deputies departed with eight of the convicts for Columbia, and gave them safe lodgement in that admirable State Hotel—the Penitentiary.

New Advertisements.

See notice of Board of Registration for Third Precinct.

The attention of all concerned is called to the several advertisements in this issue from the Commissioner in Equity.

TO THE LADIES.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the card of Mrs. HALL, who keeps constantly on hand a full and well assorted stock of everything needed in the Millinery line, and advise the ladies to accept the invitation to call and examine the same.

Those in need of a Cotton Gin of the most improved patent, are invited to call at the store of Mr. JOHN A. HAMILTON, and inspect one which is of a make which has given universal satisfaction. Messrs. H. L. JEFFERS & Co., of Charleston, are the General Agents.—See Advertisement.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—On the 12th inst. after intense suffering for nine weeks, ROBERT LEE, son of Martin O. and Elizabeth C. Bozard, aged 1 year, 1 month and 27 days.

Matilda Albertina Briggmann. Born November 26th, 1863, Orangeburg, S. C. Died, July 25th, 1867.

So brief is the record; but a volume would not contain the joy and the grief conveyed in it. "This precious child early showed a remarkable interest in heaven. Her heart took hold of prayer. Her last illness was brief but painful; and her patience and sweetness of temper did but shine forth the brighter for the trial. And when she knew that she must die, she was not afraid, knowing that the Redeemer reigned there also. She said that she was 'going home.'"

Where all the bright visions of his pure and tender heart, of heaven's bliss and a Saviour's beauty shall be fulfilled and infinitely overpassed by the reality. It is not for her we sorrow, but for "the friend that hath its vacant chair;" the lonely hearts that will not soon forget the gentle face and loving voice, or cease to listen for the footsteps and the innocent glee they will hear in this world—nevermore!

To the Planters.
COTTON TIE AND IRON HOOPS FOR Baling Cotton.
IRON HOOPS for Baling Cotton, being largely in use in the whole Southern Country, and being sold at a much less price than Rope, the propriety of using them in place of Rope is brought to the attention of the Planters. Besides the difference in value, the Iron Ties are great preservers of Cotton, when baled, from fire. Every Tie is perfect and prepared for immediate use. We have made arrangements to supply the "ARROW TIE," and will be prepared to fill orders promptly at the Lowest Market Price. We beg that our friends in ordering, will state whether they will use Ties or Rope.
